

Visit VT Woodworkers

Be sure to swing by Woodstock, VT the weekend of September 29 and 30. For two full days the theme is wood and the wonderful creativity of Vermont's most talented woodworkers. Some of them exhibited their hand-crafted furniture this spring at the Architectural Digest Show in New York and got rave reviews from the toughest audience in the world! But please see their world-class workmanship and traditional and cutting-edge designs for yourself.

Bowls by Granville Manufacturing
Photo courtesy of VT Wood Manufacturers Association

Here's where to go: Woodstock's Union Arena (near high school on Rt. 4 West out of Woodstock) - 4th Annual Fine Furniture & Woodworking Festival; over 40 exhibitors, continuous live music, food court, activities for the whole family, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. Sat. and Sun. Look for renditions of Shaker, Traditional, Frank-Lloyd Wright. Shop on premise or make arrangements to visit the custom furniture making shops.

Bridgewater Mill, Rt. 4 West - 4th Annual Vermont Furniture and Wood Products Design Competition winners, 10 a.m. - 5:30 p.m. daily through Nov. 4.

Sat. Sept. 29
10am-5pm
Sun. Sept. 30
10am-5pm

2007 Vermont Fine Furniture & Woodworking Festival

Celebrate the traditions and fine craftsmanship of Vermont woodworkers.

Enjoy Forest Festival Weekend at Vermont's National Park.

WOOD PRODUCTS EXHIBITION AT UNION ARENA

- Visit with more than 40 fine furniture makers and wood artisans/demonstrators
- Purchase made-in-Vermont furniture/gifts

JON GILBERT FOX

Admission $7/person (18 & under Free)
$2 Off With This Ad

Fun for the Whole Family—Live Music & Food Court

FOREST FESTIVAL AT MARSH-BILLINGS-ROCKEFELLER NATIONAL HISTORIC PARK

Free Admission

- Junior Ranger Program for Kids
- Portable Sawmill/Wood-working Demonstrations
- Horse-drawn Wagon Rides
- Hike Mount Tom with expert ecologist
- Mansion and Garden Open House
- Live acoustic music

JON GILBERT FOX

Free parking. Free shuttle bus between Union Arena and National Park.

Exhibition sponsored by Vermont Wood Manufacturers Association with support from the VT Council on Rural Development 802-747-7900 or www.vermontwoodfestival.org

Forest Festival sponsored by Marsh-Billings-Rockefeller National Historical Park. For information call 802-457-3368 ext. 22 www.nps.gov/mabi

JON GILBERT FOX

Vermont Fine Woodworkers

Visit them at the festival or at their shops & galleries

Fine crafted wooden gifts and toys, including NameTrains and Montgomery Schoolhouse. Visitors can "See It Being Made" through windows to the factory floor - everything from sanders to lasers help create gifts for the whole family. Tours available by appointment.

OPEN

Monday-Friday 9-5

Saturday 9-4

Sunday 12-4

1297 Exchange St., just off Rte 7, north of Middlebury

Middlebury, VT 05753

800-421-4223

www.maplelandmark.com

e-mail: thefolks@maplelandmark.com

Congregation Shir Shalom, 1/4 mile west of Union Arena on Rt. 4 - Specially commissioned installation created by a Vermont artist / woodworker, 2-4 p.m. Sat. and Sun.

Marsh-Billings-Rockefeller National Historical Park, 10 a.m.-5 p.m. — Demonstrating the other side of wood: Where it comes from, how it's sawed into slabs and much more.

To visit individual furniture studios, please see the website at www.vermontforestheritage.org, or obtain a four-color brochure: Vermont Woodshop & Forest Tours (1-800-Vermont). For a festival update see www.vermontwoodfestival.org (802-747-7900). For Design Competition see www.vermontwooddesigns.org (802-747-7900).

Visit The Lazy Pear Gallery in Montpelier to see the work of fine art wood sculptor Robert Hitzig. His two-dimensional book-matched wood, epoxy, and "french polish" shellac sculptures are mesmerizing and beautiful.

Robert coaxes the natural grain of wood to create an illusion of three dimensions. Open from 11am to 6 pm daily.

THE LAZY PEAR GALLERY

154 Main Street

Montpelier, VT 05602

802-223-7680

www.lazypear.com

e-mail: lazypear@lazypear.com

Bed by Walt Stanley, Brookside Manu.

Photo courtesy of Jon Gilbert Fox

Charles Shackleton's designs are interpretations of historic, classic styles with a sensibility to simplicity and delicate detailing. The furniture is hand-made in the traditional manner with pride and commitment to the highest quality. Each piece is made by one exceptional craftsman from beginning to end.

Charles Shackleton
Furniture

Miranda Thomas
Pottery

The Mill, Rte. 4

Bridgewater, VT 05034

802-672-5175

Charlie@shackletonthomas.com